

Evan B. Johnson

537 Fourth Street, Apt. 8C • Athens • Georgia • 30601
Phone: (423) 285-3337 • Email: evanj@uga.edu

Education:

M.A. in History: University of Georgia, In Progress

Masters Thesis: “Violence and Retaliation: Civilian Responses to the Thirty Years War.”
Committee Members: Dr. Benjamin Ehlers, University of Georgia; Dr. John Morrow,
University of Georgia; Dr. Daniel Riches, University of Alabama

B.A. in History, Magna cum Laude: Bryan College, 2011

Undergraduate Thesis: “History’s Enigma: The Treason of Albrecht von Wallenstein”

Research and Teaching Fields:

Early Modern Europe, War and Society, and The Thirty Years War

Papers Under Review:

“Legislation and Naturalization: Colonies, Armies, and the Expansion of British Subjecthood in the Atlantic World.” The Historical Journal, Cambridge University Press, Submitted Fall 2013

Conference Presentations:

“Violence and Retaliation: Civilian Responses to the Thirty Years War,” Georgia Association of Historians Conference. Athens, Georgia, February 2014

“History’s Enigma: The Treason of Albrecht von Wallenstein,” Bryan College Undergraduate Research Conference, Dayton, Tennessee, April 2011

“Via Salina: Salt in Rome,” Phi Alpha Theta Undergraduate History Conference, Chattanooga, Tennessee, April 2011

Teaching Experience:

HIS220: Historical Writing

Classroom Assistant:

Dr. Salvatore Musumeci, Bryan College, Fall 2011

HIS321: Early Modern Europe

Teaching Assistant:

Dr. Salvatore Musumeci, Bryan College, Spring 2012

HIST2302: Western Civilization I

Departmental Assistant:

Dr. Salvatore Musumeci, Bryan College, Spring 2011

Teaching Assistant:

Dr. Steven Soper, University of Georgia, Fall 2012

Dr. Kirk Willis, University of Georgia, Summer 2013

HIST2112: American History since 1865

Teaching Assistant:

Dr. Claudio Saunt, University of Georgia, Spring 2013

Teaching Assistant/Breakout Instructor:

Dr. Joshua Haynes, University of Georgia, Fall 2013

Online Teaching Assistant:

Dr. Bradford Sample, Bryan College, Fall 2011

Dr. Travis Ricketts, Bryan College, Spring 2012

History Tutoring Center Coordinator for the Academic Support Center, Bryan College, 2011-2012

History Tutor in the Academic Support Center, Bryan College, 2009-2011

Departmental Assistant for History Department, Bryan College, 2009-2011

Guest Lectures:

“The Thirty Years War,” Bryan College, Western Civilization Guest Lecture, 2010

Workshops:

“Chicago and Turabian Citation Styles: An Overview.” ASC, Bryan College, September 2011

“How to Study Well.” ASC, Bryan College, November 2011

Service to the University:

University of Georgia: History Graduate Student Associate Master Representative, 2013-Present

Bryan College: Student Body President, 2010

Bryan College: Founded the History Tutoring Center within the Academic Support Center, 2009

Bryan College: Class President, 2007-2009

Miscellaneous University Service:

University of Georgia: Participated in prospective student meeting for Graduate School, November 2013

Bryan College: Moderated panel for BC Undergraduate Research Conference, April 2013

Bryan College: Moderated panel for BC Undergraduate Research Conference, April 2012

Bryan College: Participated in prospective student meeting for History Department, November 2011

Bryan College: Participated in a panel on history and historical fiction for HIST2301, October, 2011

Bryan College: Proctored US History Exam, October 2011

Bryan College: Presenter at the President’s Roundtable, Topic: Undergraduate Research, October 2011

Bryan College: Participated in prospective student meeting for History Department, July 2011

Bryan College: Led study sessions for US History students, Spring 2011

Bryan College: Presenter for Heritage Week March, 2010
Bryan College: Presenter for Heritage Week March, 2009

Fellowships, Grants, and Awards:

Institute for Humane Studies Fellowship	Awarded, 2013-2014
Institute for Humane Studies Fellowship	Awarded, 2012-2013
“Faithfulness and Loyalty Award” for exhibiting outstanding loyalty to the college and its mission Granted,	Awarded, Spring 2011
“Who’s Who in American Universities and Colleges”	Nominated, Spring 2011
Presidential Merit Scholarship, Bryan College, Dayton, TN	Awarded, 2007-2011

Languages:

German: Moderate reading knowledge

Scholarly Affiliations:

Georgia Association of Historians

Professional References:

Dr. Benjamin Ehlers
Associate Professor of History; Director of Graduate Studies
University of Georgia
Email: behlers@uga.edu

Dr. Susan Mattern
Professor of History
University of Georgia
Email: smattern@uga.edu

Dr. Salvatore Musumeci
Associate Professor of European History and Italian Cultural Studies
Bryan College
Email: salvatore.musumeci@bryan.edu